St. James's, May 15.

THE following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Lane, Eſqr; Chairman, attended by Nathaniel Blackerby and Benjamin Burroughs, Eſqrs. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Middleſex: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your moſt gracious Majeſty,

YOur Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace for your County of Middleſex, in their General Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, do with the utmoſt Joy and Gratitude, lay hold on this Occaſion, to preſent their moſt humble and thankful Congratulations, for your Majeſty's moſt affectionate and tender Concern for the Welfare of your People, manifeſted in the auſpicious Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with his illuſtrious Conſort; a Princeſs deſcended from Anceſtors diſtinguiſhed by their early Zeal in the Proteſtant Cauſe.

We conſider this as an additional Proof of your Royal and paternal Care for the Proteſtant Intereſt, and which we hope will prove a laſting Barrier to theſe Nations againſt Popery and arbitrary Power.

Give us Leave, great Sir, to aſſure your Majeſty, of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, and that we ſhall never be wanting to do what in us lies, towards making your Reign as eaſy and glorious to yourſelf, as it is happy and beneficial to all your Subjects.

Then they were introduced to the Queen, and preſented the following Congratulation to her Majeſty; who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the Queen.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WIth Hearts full of Gratitude we expreſs our Pleaſure and Satisfaction on the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with the Princeſs Auguſta of Saxe-Gotha, and are fully ſenſible of his Majeſty's great Goodneſs, in thus ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Religion.

It is, Madam, our hearty Wiſh, that one of his Majeſty's Royal Family, inheriting your Majeſty's Virtues, may ſit upon the Throne of theſe Kingdoms to the End of Time.

After which they were introduced to their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and preſented the following Congratulation to their Royal Highneſſes, who were pleaſed to receive the ſame in a very obliging Manner.

To the Prince and Princeſs of Wales.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſſes.

IT is with the utmoſt Joy and Pleaſure, we ſee a Marriage conſummated between ſo great a Prince and ſo amiable a Princeſs, from whence we have the moſt agreeable Proſpect.

May your Royal Highneſſes be the Care of that kind and good Providence which hath made you happy in each other; and may that Happineſs be as great to yourſelves as it is promiſing to all his Majeſty's Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. Charles Lord Lynn, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden for the ſaid County, at the Caſtle in Norwich, the 4th Day of May 1736.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with her Serene Highneſs the Princeſs Auguſta. An Occaſion that has diffuſed univerſal Satisfaction and Joy, and promiſes the moſt important Bleſſings to all true Britons: And which we owe to your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom and unwearied Attention to the Publick Welfare.

Your Majeſty not content to afford us a preſent Security for our Religion and Liberties under your juſt and gracious Protection, has been pleaſed, like an indulgent Father of your People, to extend your Views to future Times, and to take the moſt prudent Care for tranſmitting the full and uninterrupted Enjoyment of them to our lateſt Poſterity. Whilſt we behold your Majeſty upon the Throne of Great Britain, in conſequence to the happy Settlement of the Crown made by the great King William, of glorious Memory, and governing your People with ſo much Moderation and Juſtice; we ſhould have abundant Reaſon to expect a laſting Security for our Rights and Properties, were not this, like all other earthly Enjoyments, ſubject to the Accidents that attend the Mortality of Princes: Againſt theſe Dangers we now find ourſelves guarded as effectually as can be contrived by human Counſels. For when nothing more ſeemed to be wanting to compleat our Wiſhes, your Majeſty has been pleaſed, in tender Regard to the Security of your People, to chuſe for the Heir apparent of your Crowns, a Conſort deſcended from an illuſtrious Houſe, endeared to all Proteſtants for their being the great Founders of the Reformation, and Defenders of the Liberties of their Country.

This prudent Meaſure has, to our unſpeakable Comfort, diſſipated the Apprehenſions of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects ariſing from the common Fate of Princes: And at the ſame Time open'd the delightful Proſpect of a long Succeſſion of Princes in your Royal Family, which inheriting the Virtues of your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, and following the great Example now ſet them on the Throne, in their conſtant Regard to Juſtice and Love of their Country, ſhall continue our preſent Happineſs till Time ſhall be no more.

Whilſt we truly rejoice in the gracious Proviſion your Majeſty has made for our preſent and future Happineſs; we ſhall, as we are in Duty and Gratitude indiſpenſably bound, always remember to ſhow the juſt Senſe we have of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, by a ſteady adherence to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and by our beſt Endeavours in our ſeveral Places to diſcountenance all cauſeleſs Fears and Jealouſies, and to promote univerſal Benevolence and Peace: Adding our ardent Prayers, that by theſe Means, with the Bleſſing of divine Providence, your Majeſty's Reign may be render'd as eaſy to your ſelf, as we wiſh it may be long for the Good of your People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgeſſes of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorſet, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Scrope and Henry Holt Henley, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and Francis Fane, Eſq; one of the Corporation of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgeſſes of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorſet.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the ancient Corporation of Lyme Regis, with Hearts full of Joy, approach your moſt ſacred Perſon, on the happy Nuptials of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; and with the moſt grateful Acknowledgements of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in providing by this Marriage for the Happineſs of your People.

We behold your Majeſty reigning in the Hearts of your Subjects, protecting their Commerce, maintaining the Dignity of the Britiſh Crown, and extending the Influence of the Britiſh Councils. By your Majeſty's vigilant Care for the common Safety, we enjoyed the Bleſſings of Peace, whilſt the Nations on the Con-

Continent were involved in War; and from the Succeſs of your Majeſty's amicable Offices, we have ſeen the contending Powers lay aſide their Animoſities, and the Tranquility of Europe reſtored, at a Time when the Scene of Blood ſeemed likely to become univerſal.

For this your Majeſty's Fatherly Care of your People, we are bound by a Senſe of our Duty, and are led by the Love of our Happineſs, to intereſt ourſelves in the Felicity of your Royal Family, and in the Glory of your Majeſty's Reign; acknowledging that Victories and Triumphs would be far inferior to the Benefits which we derive from your ſteady and impartial Adminiſtration of Juſtice, and from your wiſe and proſperous Care for the Preſervation of our Peace.

Your Majeſty's Subjects of this Corporation, felt the Rage of Popiſh Tyranny, and the Cruelty of arbitrary Power, whilſt it prevailed in this Kingdom, beyond what was practiſed in any other Parts of England. The Memory of our Sufferings for the Proteſtant Religion, excites our Gratitude for your Majeſty's Care of it, and for your Choice of a Princeſs on this happy Occaſion, deſcended of the moſt illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe Gotha, the ancient Bulwark of the Reformation, whoſe Steadineſs and Sufferings in the Cauſe of Liberty, have rendered her Royal Highneſs worthy to be received into your Majeſty's Royal Family. And your People have the higheſt Reaſon to be aſſured, that her perſonal Merit and Accompliſhments, which now ſo juſtly engage their Affections and Eſteem, will be the Source of much Happineſs to them and their Poſterity.

That from this auſpicious Marriage your Majeſty may ſee an happy and a numerous Offſpring, growing up under your Royal Care, the Delight of our own Times, and the Security of Ages to come: That their Royal Highneſſes imitating the Virtues of their auguſt Parents, may be equally eminent in conjugal Felicity: That all the Branches of your Royal Family may enjoy the higheſt Proſperity: And that your People may very long be bleſſed with your Majeſty's Perſon to reign over them, great and triumphant abroad, gracious and beloved at home, are the unfeigned Prayers and Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Given under our common Seal at Lyme Regis, the 12th Day of May, 1736.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Walter Blackett, Eſq; Mayor, their Repreſentative in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Scarbrough: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, highly ſenſible of the many and great Bleſſings we derive and enjoy from your Majeſty's paternal Care, ſhould be juſtly deemed unworthy of your Majeſty's further Protection, did we not moſt chearfully embrace the earlieſt Opportunity our Situation will permit, to congratulate your ſacred Majeſty upon the happy Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with a Princeſs of the illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe Gotha; an Union evidently calculated for the Joy and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Kingdoms, and the Strengthening and great Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt.

Pardon and accept, moſt gracious Sovereign, this Effort of our Gratitude, which we humbly conceive cannot be expreſſed in a Manner more ſuitable to the glorious Occaſion, than by aſſuring your Majeſty of a ſtrict and ſteady Perſeverance in that Zeal and Loyalty ever due from a People truly ſenſible of their Happineſs, to a Prince indefatigable in obtaining it for them.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixth Day of May 1736.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the City and County of the City of Exon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Balle, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid City. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the City and County of the City of Exon, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at the Guildhall of the ſaid City on the 3d Day of May, 1736.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the City and County of the City of Exon, humbly crave Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our hearty Congratulations tions on the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with the moſt ſerene Princeſs Auguſta.

Your Majeſty's conſtant Regard for the Welfare of your People, is abundantly conſpicuous in this great Inſtance of your Care for the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Intereſt; and as 'tis the Honour of this City to have his Royal Highneſs for its High Steward, we think our ſelves more particularly obliged to rejoice on the Alliance with this illuſtrious Family, which has ſo glorioufly ſignalized it ſelf in the Defence of the Proteſtant Cauſe.

We humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, in our ſeveral Stations, and on all Occaſions, behave as Subjects that are highly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we every Day enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and therefore cannot omit any Opportunity of teſtifying our zealons Attachment to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and every Branch of your Royal Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exon, has been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very gracionſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exon.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exon, moſt humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with her moſt Serene Highneſs the Princeſs of Saxe Gotha.

With all dutiful Thankfulneſs do we acknowledge the unwearied Endeavours of your Majeſty to ſupport and maintain the Intereſt and Happineſs of your People. And to your Wiſdom and Conduct has it been owing that your Subjects have enjoyed the Bleſſings of Peace, whilſt our Neighbours abroad have been groaning under the Miſery of War.

But this new Inſtance of your Majeſty's great Care for the better ſecuring the Proteſtant Religion at Home, and the Strengthening its Intereſt Abroad, in a more particular Manner, challenges the moſt grateful and hearty Acknowledgements of all your truly Proteſtant Subjects.

An Alliance with a Princeſs of ſuch exalted Vertues, and deſcended from an Houſe which has been ſo eminently diſtinguiſh'd by the moſt generous Zeal in Defence of the Liberties of Europe and the Proteſtant Religion, cannot fail of raiſing an univerſal Joy and Satisfaction among all your Majeſty's Subjects, eſpecially thoſe of this City, who have the Honour and Happineſs of a more immediate Relation to his Royal Highneſs.

With Pleaſure may we now look forward, and promiſe ourſelves the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings we at preſent enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and auſpicious Government.

That Heaven may anſwer thoſe good and gracious Intentions of your Majeſty, by bleſſing their Royal Highneſſes with a numerous Iſſue; and that your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and happy, is the moſt ardent and zealous Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, do humbly beg leave to approach your Majeſty with our Congratulations, the unfeigned Expreſſions of our great Joy, upon the Occaſion of the auſpicious Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with the illuſtrious Princeſs of Saxe Gotha.

Nothing is more conſpicuous than your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, in approving the Marriage of your eldeſt Son according to the hearty deſires of all your loyal and affectionate People; and we beg you will permit us to thank your Majeſty for this freſh Inſtance of your Wiſdom and Goodneſs, wherein the beſt Principles and Policy are happily united; as in the Marriage of the Prince of Wales with a Proteſtant Princeſs, the pureſt Sentiments of your own Mind are freely purſued under the Guard and Encouragement of the moſt venerable Act of Settlement, the more effectually to ſecure to your happy Subjects the full Enjoyment of their Religion and Liberties, as reſcued and maintain'd by our late great Deliverer King William the Third, of glorious and immortal Memory.

His Royal Highneſs will ſtand diſtinguiſhed, as for his many excellent princely Endowments, ſo for his being the firſt Prince of Wales that ever was bleſſed with a Proteſtant Conſort; as this has a favourable Aſpect to the

Intereſt

Intereſts of the Proteſtant Religion, and promiſes the Continuance of the Government of theſe Kingdoms, in Princes deſcended from your Majeſty, and formed upon your wiſe and beneficent Maxims, we heartily pray that your Majeſty, with your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, may long live to ſee ſuch Royal Deſcendants, which muſt needs give your Majeſties unſpeakable Satisfaction, and will be freſh Springs of Joy and Thankfulneſs to all your Majeſties true Proteſtant Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Clergy, Gentlemen, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Cardigan, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Richard Lloyd, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Clergy, Gentlemen, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Cardigan.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg leave to approach your ſacred Throne, with our moſt hearty and ſincere Congratulations on the happy Nuptials of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we can never ſufficiently applaud your paternal Care and Wiſdom, in obtaining for the illuſtrious Heir of theſe Proteſtant Kingdoms, a Princeſs whoſe Virtues and Accompliſhments are juſtly admired throughout all Europe, and who has the Glory to be deſcended from thoſe pious and renowned Anceſtors (ever to be mentioned with Honour) who firſt encouraged and ſupported the Reformation, and of which, your Majeſty, under God, is the principal Defender.

We preſume at the ſame time, (for our Hearts are full of the Senſe of your Royal Benefits) to expreſs the great Satisfaction we have in beholding your Majeſty the glorious Mediator of the Peace of Europe; and your juſt Meaſures executed with ſo much Ability and Addreſs by your diſcreet and faithful Miniſters, that the World ſtood amazed at the ſudden and unforeſeen Reconciliation of the contending Powers. You choſe to win by your Perſwaſions, rather than compel by your Arms, as more conſiſtent with the Eaſe and Happineſs of your People, and the ineſtimable Bleſſings of your good and gentle Reign.

Long may your Majeſty, (very long) continue the Delight and Ornament of your People, and together with our moſt excellent and gracious Queen, be in every Royal Virtue the great Examples to all the ſhining Branches of your auguſt Houſe; and that thoſe Virtues, as well as your Blood, may deſcend in a ſucceſſive Race of Royal Progeny, to bleſs theſe Nations in all future Ages, are the ardent Prayers of, Dread Sir, Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the French Proteſtant Refugees, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Monſ. Ofrere, attended by ſeveral French Miniſters, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State; Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

AU ROY.

SIRE,

SOus le bon Plaiſir de Vôtre Majeſté, ſes très humbles et très fideles Sujets, les Proteſtants François Refugiez, viennent porter aux Pieds de ſon Trône les Demonſtrations de leur Joye pour l'heureux Mariage de ſon Alteſſe Royale Monſeigneur le Prince de Galles avec l'illuſtre Princeſſe de Saxe-Gotha. Ce Choix, Sire, l'Ouvrage de la Sageſſe et des Soins paternels de vôtre Majeſté, ce Choix ſi aplaudi du Monde, fait la Conſolation de l'Egliſe, qui bénit vôtre Majeſté d'avoir uni à ſon auguſte Sang une Princeſſe iſſuë d'un Maiſon où la Grandeur de la Naiſſance eſt jointe à l'Eminence des Vertus, et dont le Zéle pour la Réformation, ſemblable à celui des premiers Heros de la Religion de Jeſus Chriſt a été conſacré par des Souffrances, Nous voyons deja dans les Suites de cette auguſte Union, l'Affermiſſement de la Succeſſion Proteſtante ſur le Trône que vôtre Majeſté remplit avec tant de Grandeur et de Gloire, et les Avantages dont nous joüiſſons ſous le Gouvernement juſte et doux de vôtre Majeſté, tranſmis aux Ages à venir par une Poſterité digne Imitatrice de vos Vertus. Vueille le Ciel repondre à nos Vœux! et que par la Grace du Tout-puiſſant, il y ait juſqu'à la Fin des Siécles quelqu'un des Deſcendants de vôtre Majeſté aſſis ſur le Trône Imperial de ces Royaumes, pour être véritablement le Defenſeur de la Foi Chrêtienne, et le Protecteur des Droits et des Libertez du Genre humain!

ſtant; but the King having ſince altered that Intention, and choſe to paſs the Whitſon Holidays at Gottorp, his Majeſty's Arrival in this Neghbourhood will be delayed ſix or eight Days longer. Whether he will ſtay in theſe Parts till the Troops return from the Rhine, is doubted now. Yeſterday the Citizens of Hambourg, in a General Aſſembly, agreed to ratify the Convention made with the Crown of Denmark.

Hague, May, 22, N. S. The States of Holland have adjuſted ſome of their domeſtick Affairs that had long lain under their Conſideration, having reſolved to grant to the North Hollanders a Sum of 600000 Florins towards repairing their Dikes, and 400000 to the Town of Gorcum, for conſenting that a Branch of the Maeſe may be conveyed to Dort, to augment the Waters there. This Morning came Advice from Paris, that the Queen of France was brought to Bed of a Princeſs; and that the Duke du Maine was dead: And from Berlin, that King Staniſlaus arrived there the 16th Inſtant in his Way to France. His Excellency Mr. Walpole having received Orders from England, is preparing to attend the King his Maſter at Hanover: To Day the States were deſired to give Directions for the Guards that are to attend his Majeſty in his Paſſage through their Territories, to repair to their reſpective Stations on the Road.
